INCOME TAX: WHO IS LIABLE/RESIDENCY

Residents

An individual is regarded as a resident of Finland for tax purposes if he/she has his or her permanent home in Finland or if the individual stays in Finland for a continuous period of more than six months. Temporary absence does not prevent from regarding the stay continuous. Persons regarded as Finnish tax residents are liable to pay tax on their worldwide income.

Double taxation is, in general, eliminated. The income tax paid overseas will usually be credited. The foreign sourced income may be exempted from Finnish tax based on the applicable DTT.

Key Employees

Taxation of foreign key employees' earnings is governed by special provisions of law. Individuals arriving to Finland for periods longer than six months and thus becoming Finnish residents for tax purposes may, provided that certain strict conditions are met, be treated as foreign key employees taxed at a flat rate of 32 %.

Non-Residents

A non-resident individual is only taxed on their Finnish source income. The income is typically taxed at source at a final tax rate of 35 %. Nonresident individuals may also claim treatment of their earned income under the progressive scheme instead of being assessed at source at the tax rate of 35 %

A tax treaty between the home country and Finland may prohibit the taxation of individuals in certain cases.

BREAKING RESIDENCY - EXIT PROCEDURES

A foreign citizen will cease to be a Finnish tax resident immediately when he/she moves away from Finland on a permanent basis.

When moving from Finland the individual should file a change of address notice with the local register office within one week from the move.

If needed, the employee should file a request for cancellation of prepayment obligation to local Tax Office.
